Parade and Band Review

Band Review - 9:45 a.m. Parade - 10:00 a.m.

On Saturday, November 8 the La Palma Days Parade and Band Review will feature over 125 units, including two dozen junior and senior high school bands, JROTC units, veterans military entries, celebrities, dignitaries, local schools, clubs and organizations—all parading proudly down Walker Street, from Houston to La Palma Avenue, to emphasize La Palma's great community spirit!

If quality instrumental music is of interest, don't miss the performance of two dozen of the very best junior and senior high school bands to be found in California! The La Palma Days Band Review is one of Southern California's premiere band competitions, commencing just prior to the community parade, at Bransford Drive and Walker Street.

For further information regarding the Parade and Band Review, please contact La Palma Recreation and Community Services at (714) 690-3350.

Entertainment

La Palma Days will feature two stages of culturally diverse and family entertainment to put a smile on your face! The day will feature professional performers in addition to our local talent and schools. Our special children's stage will provide magical entertainment for the younger guests. Plan to spend the day enjoying all that La Palma Days has to offer!

Activities

A variety of activities for preschool to adult will be featured. This year everyone will have fun and support local organizations at the same time, as a local nonprofit will sponsor each activity and receive a portion of the activities' proceeds. Activities will include: giant obstacle course, giant fiberglass slide, small children's rides, Jacob's Ladder, and climbing wall. Cerritos College's Chemistry Club will be celebrating National Chemistry Week by sharing a free children's activity from 2-4 p.m.

Presale Activity Tickets will go on sale beginning Monday, Oct. 20 and will continue through Friday, Nov. 8 at 5 p.m. Presale tickets may be purchased at the La Palma Recreation & Community Services offices. Buy your tickets early and take advantage of the savings. We are sorry, but presale tickets will not be sold after 5 p.m. on Nov. 7.

Food and Vendors

Enjoy a wide variety of tasty cuisine from around the world and support your local nonprofit groups at the same time! Bring your appetites, select your favorite foods, and sit down and relax in our covered picnic area. After sampling dishes from around the world, visitors can enjoy a variety of decadent desserts. Also, shop and browse through our community and commercial booths, featuring various products, services and games.

Arts and Crafts

Again, this year's celebration will feature an arts & crafts area that will showcase talented artisans and weekend crafters. A variety of handcrafted items, jewelry and holiday gifts will be available to purchase. Look for items such as dried and silk floral arrangements, hand painted items, candles, hand made soap and needlecrafts. A great opportunity to start your holiday shopping!

Cultural and Historical Displays

La Palma celebrates its diversity and its 48-year history by sharing its many cultures in a special display area. Visitors can stroll and enjoy a representative sampling of the many cultures that are in La Palma and surrounding communities. These displays will allow representatives from the various cultures to share and showcase their traditions. A rare display of old photographs and other memorabilia will allow visitors to reminisce and learn about the early days of La Palma!

Commemorative
T-Shirts

Show your community pride by wearing a commemorative Celebrate La Palma T-shirt at La Palma Days. The shirts are only $10 and may be purchased at the Central Park office, 7821 Walker Street until Friday, Nov. 7. If there are any left, shirts will also be on sale during La Palma Days.
